Summary of the Second Issue

Editorial

Benoît Miribel

Perspectives

Jean-Christophe Rufin

• Humanitarian action in times of « war on terror » – p. 12

Focus: World Humanitarian Summit: questions remaining to be answered

Wolf-Dieter Eberwein

• World Humanitarian Summit: on the road to Istanbul – p. 22

Pauline Chetcuti

• A humanitarian consensus à la française – p. 36

Karine Penrose-Theis

Gareth Price-Jones

Danielle Tan

Mamadou Ndiaye

Anne Héry

Antoine Peigney

Abdoul Azize Diallo

• Crossing glances from Asia and Africa towards Istanbul – p. 60

• Standards and finances: analysis of the report of Ban Ki-moon – p. 70

• Between hopes and fears: what Africa expects from the World Humanitarian Summit – p. 84

Ethics

Pierre Le Coz

• Ethical deliberation at the service of humanitarian action – p. 94

Transitions

Runa Khan

• New models of working and partnership in development: the example of Friendship, a Bangladeshi organisation – p. 112

Innovations

Stéphanie Maltais

Yvan Conoir

• The Canadian Humanitarian Coalition: is three-tiered humanitarianism in the making? – p. 138

Reportage

Philippe Rochot

• “Providing proof and showing things through pictures” – p. 156

Culture

• Totally Brax: War against terror – p. 175

• Film: The White Knights, by Joachim Lafosse – p. 183

• Book: Hunger, by Martin Caparrós – p. 186