

Summary of the Second Issue

Editorial	Benoît Miribel	• The World Humanitarian Summit: What lies ahead?	–	p. 3
Perspectives	Jean-Christophe Rufin	• Humanitarian action in times of « war on terror »	–	p. 12
Focus: World Humanitarian Summit: questions remaining to be answered	Wolf-Dieter Eberwein	• World Humanitarian Summit: on the road to Istanbul	–	p. 22
	Pauline Chetcuti Karine Penrose-Theis	• A humanitarian consensus à la française	–	p. 36
	Gareth Price-Jones	• The Summit of greater uncertainty	–	p. 48
	Danielle Tan Mamadou Ndiaye	• Crossing glances from Asia and Africa towards Istanbul	–	p. 60
	Anne Héry Antoine Peigney	• Standards and finances: analysis of the report of Ban Ki-moon	–	p. 70
	Abdoul Azizé Diallo	• Between hopes and fears: what Africa expects from the World Humanitarian Summit	–	p. 84
Éthique/Ethics	Pierre Le Coz	• Ethical deliberation at the service of humanitarian action	–	p. 94
Transitions	Runa Khan	• New models of working and partnership in development: the example of Friendship, a Bangladeshi organisation	–	p. 112
Innovations	Stéphanie Maltais Yvan Conoir	• The Canadian Humanitarian Coalition: is three-tiered humanitarianism in the making?	–	p. 138
Reportage	Philippe Rochot	• “Providing proof and showing things through pictures”	–	p. 156
Culture		• Totally Brax: War against terror	–	p. 175
		• Film: The White Knights , by Joachim Lafosse	–	p. 183
		• Book: Hunger , by Martín Caparrós	–	p. 186