

Summary of the sixth Issue “NGOs and the private sector: threat or opportunity?”

---

Editorial

- Boris Martin* • Businesses and NGOs: the maturity of a debate – p. 3

Perspectives

- Joan Deas and Elise Reslinger* • Humanitarian aid in Palestine: reconsidering neutrality through child protection – p. 12

Focus: NGOs and the private sector: threat or opportunity?

- Mathieu Dufour* • Are NGOs the sole purveyors of honourable intentions? – p. 28

- Kristel Guyon* • Reconciling economics and social concerns: the example of arcenciel in Lebanon – p. 38

- Lucie Laplace* • When NGOs and lucrative organisations collaborate: the economic integration of refugees in Ecuador – p. 48

- Isabelle Schlaepfer* • How the arrival of companies re-examines the notions of legitimacy and accountability: the example of cash transfer programmes – p. 60

- Anne-Aël Pobu* • Partnerships with private operators: the necessary debate among NGOs p. 74

Transitions

- Perrine Laissus-Benoist and Benoît Lallau* • From resilience to localisation, or how slogans are not enough for an in-depth reform of the humanitarian sector – p. 86

Innovations

- Oscar Felipe Chavez Aguirre* • New challenges in the context of violent urban settings – p. 100

Reportage

- Délégation régionale du Comité international de la Croix-Rouge (CICR)* • Humanitarian Visa d'Or of the ICRC, 2011-2017: seven years of reflection – p. 118

Culture

- Complètement Brax • Multinational corporations are replacing NGOs – p. 139

- Livres • Demise of Hospitality – p. 142

- The Politics of Fear – p. 145