

Summary of the Fourth Issue “Syria: the future in limbo”

---

Editorial

- Nathalie Herlemont-Zoritchak* • Regaining a sense of the humanitarian imperative – p. 3

Perspectives

- François Frison-Roche* • Yemen: a conflict behind closed doors – p. 12
- Lucile Grosjean* • Yemen: the challenge of maintaining a humanitarian access – p. 17

Focus: Syria: the future in limbo

- Entretien avec Laure Stephan, Jean-Hervé Bradol et Matthieu Rey* • Crossing glances on Syria – p. 36
- Dr Kamel Mohanna* • Impacts of the Syrian crisis in Lebanon: civil society as a vector of solidarity – p. 64
- Peter Harling
Alex Simon
Rosalie Berthier* • The aid regime to Syria: a failed localisation – p. 70
- Sami Aoun* • Syria: will diplomacy put an end to the massacre? – p. 82
- Entretien avec Stephen O'Brien* • “We need unconditional, unimpeded and sustained access to every single vulnerable person in Syria” – p. 94

Ethics

- Gwenaëlle Luc-Menichelli* • Challenges and dilemmas in the implementation of ethical standards in humanitarian programmes – p. 104

Innovations

- Diana Volonakis
Susana Borda Carulla* • Children as agents of social and political change for water protection advocacy in post-conflict Colombia – p. 120

Reportage

- Agnès Varraine-Leca* • Seeing Syria again – p. 132

Culture

- Totally Brax • Silence – p. 145
- Books • Humanitarian economics. War, disaster and the global aid market – p. 146
- Idealism beyond borders. The French revolutionary left and the rise of humanitarianism, 1954-1988 – p. 151