

Summary of the Inaugural Issue

Editorial

- Jean-François Mattei,*
Benoît Miribel,
Jean-Baptiste Richardier
Jean-Christophe Rufin
- Why risk publishing a new international humanitarian review? – p. 3

Perspectives

- Eleanor Davey*
- Humanitarian action beyond the “French doctors” – p. 10

Focus: Ebola: The end of the nightmare?

- Pf Jean-François Delfraissy*
Benoît Miribel
Michael Edelstein
David L. Heymann
Jean-Hervé Bradol
- Lessons from Ebola – p. 22
 - Ebola: past, present and future – p. 28
 - The response to the Ebola epidemic: negligence, improvisation and authoritarianism – p. 39
 - Tale of a mission to Liberia, unlike any other – p. 51
 - Ebola in Guinea: strengths and weaknesses brought to the fore – p. 57
 - Breaking the Ebola virus transmission chains: the story of a deployment in Sierra Leone – p. 66
- Gaëlle Faure*
Jérôme Bestier
Pauline Laviotte
Magalie Vairetto
Jean-Baptiste Richardier
Christophe Longuet
Alex Salam
Jake Dunning
- Ebola research: an encounter between science and humanitarian action – p. 81

Transitions

- Jean-François Mattei*
- Haïti, or humanitarian ethics under question – p. 96

Innovations

- Thomas Fouquet*
- Humanitarian action in the face of civic mobilisations. The example of the Senegalese movement Y en a marre – p. 110