

Summary of the Third Issue

Editorial

- Serge Breysse* • Forced migrations: a necessary humaneness – p. 3
Jean-Baptiste Richardier

Perspectives

- Antonio Donini* • World Humanitarian summit: a lost opportunity? – p. 14
Marc Poncin • Engaging with National authorities: Médecins sans Frontières’s experience in Guinea during the Ebola epidemic – p. 28

Focus : Forced migration : A global challenge

- Angelique Muller* • MSF in Grande-Synthe: lessons from an unlikely coalition of actors – p. 42
Michael Neuman
- Idil Atak* • “The priority for states must be to save lives” – p. 52
Yvan Conoir
- Marie Alice Torré* • Refugees and displaced persons in Nigeria and Myanmar: rethinking the synergy – p. 71
Thierry Benlabsen
- Achille Valéry Mengo* • Refugees and displaced persons in Cameroon: the silent Hydra – p. 80
- Paul Chiron* • Environmental migrations: future prospects – p. 88
- Michel Maietta* • The European refugee crisis: forecasting for 2018 – p. 98

Ethics

- Virginie Troit* • Humanitarian ethics and international relations: contradictions or \(re\)conciliations? – p. 112

Transitions

- Verena Richardier* • A look at NGOs in China – p. 132

Innovations

- Malika Aït-Mohamed* • Corruption: a challenge that doesn’t escape the humanitarian sector – p. 148
Parent

Reportage

- Laurence Geai* • Neither safe nor sound: unaccompanied children in the North of France – p. 158

Culture

- Barbara Hendricks* • Totally Brax – p. 172
 • Books
 • Tribune: Greece is an example of solidarity for Europe!