

Summary of the Fifth Issue
“Africa: between shadow and light”

Editorial

- Virginie Troit*
Jean-François Mattei-
- The challenges of humanitarian transition in Africa – p. 3

Perspectives

- Arjun Claire*
- Humanitarian aid as a deterrent in Greece – p. 14
- Franck Esnée Michaël*
Neuman
- Sheltering, hosting or receiving refugees: the unresolved ambiguities of the La Linière refugee camp – p. 30

Focus : Afrique: entre ombre et lumière

- Serge Michailof*
- Sub-Saharan Africa: worrying clouds on the horizon – p. 46
- Sadio Ba Gning*
Kelly Poulet
- Senegal: The difficulty for NGOs to gain independence from the State – p. 61
- Christiane Rafidinarivo*
- The impact of international proceedings for bypassing the State: the example of Madagascar – p. 74

Ethics

- Arnaud Dandoy*
- The ethics of care versus humanitarian exceptionalism – p. 88

Reportage

- Sandra Calligaro*
- Afghan Stories : Waiting for Hope – p. 100

Culture

- Totally Brax – p. 115

- Film
- “Barbarity is well shared : no religion exerts a monopoly over it”, interview with Jonathan Littell – p. 116

- Chronicle of a genocide – p. 121

- Development aid in 350 words – p. 130

- Books
- In times of remote-control war – p. 131

- Is humanitarianism on the decline? – p. 139

- A guide to fight against health inequalities – p. 144